Morning s47F [REDACTED]

Thank you for your email.

I actually think that we may need to change our sector - being a regulator, we are a non-government private organisation funded by members fees.

In terms of employee numbers, we're sitting at 1446, so happy to round up or down if needed.

All other details look perfect.

Thank you so much,

 As part of our approach to providing AWEI index submission and survey participants with more relevant and timely data to use for comparison purposes we have been undertaking a project to assign all organisation the following data points

- Sector
  - Public Sector (Federal Government, State Government, Local Government, )
  - Private Company,
  - NGO/Charity/NFP
  - Higher Education
- ANZSIC Industry codes based on the primary function of the organisation or department and where necessary a secondary classification using all 4 levels of the ANZIC code system
  - Industry division,
  - Industry Subdivision,
  - Industry Group and
  - Industry Class

This information has been collated in various ways including from the expression of interest form in 2024 for the Annual AWEI Employee survey, and through the use of research and allocation using the ANZSIC online tool. (which can be found here Australian and New Zealand Standard Industrial Classification \(ANZSIC\), 2006 \(Revision 2.0\) | Australian Bureau of Statistics \(abs.gov.au\))

We are now asking that you review this information and provide us feedback on this data if you feel your organisation has been inaccurately assigned. Not all organisations have been allocated a secondary industry listing if we are not aware of your organisation functioning in separate industry types. You are welcome to nominate this if we have not done so.
